

Modus Operandi

ECREA Communications Law and Policy Section

1. The Communication Law and Policy (CLP) Section consists of a chair and two vice-chairs.
2. Any ECREA member can become a CLP member by notification to the Chair.
3. The office of section chair is held for two years. Three months before the end of office CLP members can candidate for Chair; re-election is allowed; simple majority vote will determine the successful candidate. Chairs are elected through electronic vote and on-site at the venue where the section convenes (usually ECREA conferences).
4. The CLP section meeting is the sovereign organ that debates and approves the direction of the section and plans its activities. However, the section business meeting cannot take decisions that go against the general ECREA statutes or the decisions of the ECREA Executive Board
