

ECREA has been founded on 25 November 2005 and is growing exponentially since then. In 2020, it has more than 2600 members from 60 countries.

ECREA organises biennial ECC conference as well as smaller-scale conferences, seminars and workshops.

ECREA provides organisational and financial support for underprivileged groups of scholars.

ECREA defends critical principles on which academic freedom is based on (including issuing public statements).

ECREA is highly interested in ethics of publishing (it established Task force on Practices of Academic Publishing in Communication and works with European Alliance for Social Sciences and Humanities).
