

Modus Operandi
ECREA Communications Law and Policy Section

1. The Communication Law and Policy (CLP) Section Management Team consists of a chair and two vice-chairs who cannot serve in their respective or any position positions for more than 6 consecutive years
2. Any ECREA member can become a CLP member by registering as Section member at the ECREA website.
3. The office of section Chair and Vice-Chair are held for two years. Three months before the end of office CLP members can candidate for Chair or Vice-Chair; re-election is allowed; simple majority vote will determine the successful candidate. Chairs and Vice-Chairs are elected through electronic vote and on-site at the venue where the section convenes (usually ECREA conferences).
4. The CLP section meeting is the sovereign organ that debates and approves the direction of the section and plans its activities. However, the section business meeting cannot take decisions that go against the general ECREA statutes or the decisions of the ECREA Executive Board
